

Christmas in Hollis

These lines from the first verse of “Christmas in Hollis” by Run DMC are out of order. Put them in the correct sequence, then watch the video and check.

And a bag full of goodies, 12 o'clock had neared
But he must have dropped his wallet smack dab on the lawn
But then I was illin' because the man had a beard
I approached very slowly with my heart full of fear
It was December 24th on Hollis Ave after dark
Looked at his dog, oh my God, an ill reindeer
So I turned my head a second and the man had gone
When I see a man chilling with his dog in the park

A million dollars in it, cold hundreds of G's
But I'd never steal from Santa, 'cause that ain't right
But when I got home I bugged, 'cause under the tree
Enough to buy a boat and matching car with ease
I picked the wallet up then I took a pause
Took out the license and it cold said “Santa Claus”!
So I was going home to mail it back to him that night
Was a letter from Santa and the dough was for me
